

Journal Article Analysis: The Journal Article Analysis (JAA) tool is a web-based application that allows users to analyze the structure and content of journal articles. It is designed to help researchers and students understand the organization and components of academic writing. The JAA tool is available at <http://www.jaa-tool.org>.

